BAND STORY

I have been a member of the Songwriters' Workshop and writing songs since 2000. The influence that the Dayton/Cincinnati songwriters' workshop has had on me has been huge. It provides the opportunity to learn, to perform, to support, to be supported, and so much more with my music. I live in the Columbus, Ohio area and am part of the singer/songwriter community there, as well.

Fun night at Espressoyourself Music Cafe

With open mike, you never know. It might be fun. It might be a bad night - chatty crowd, bad sound system. Last night (Wed), we had a great night. There weren't many performers because it's a new night there. But - there was a good crowd. And, they came to listen! As a result, the 3 performers got to do a lot of songs to a really appreciative audience. It was what we (singer/songwriters) hope for, but don't always get. Cool!
