BAND STORY

Gregory Scott was raised in a little farm town in southwest Ohio. He grew up listening to the Eagles, Elton John, Elvis and anything he could. After joining the Dayton/Cincinnati Chapter of the Nashville Songwriters Association International, he felt like he found his home. There he started learning the craft of writing songs and began his incredible journey of songwriting.

He is currently working with several industry professionals in Nashville, TN where his music is being represented everyday on the famous Music Row.

You can catch Greg playing at Cheeseburger In Paradise with his friends once a week.
