BAND STORY

My name is Jayne Sachs (pronounced Jane Sax). I'm a songwriter from Dayton, Ohio. I'm concentrating on writing for the country genre. I've been an indie artist in alt/pop for years and am taking elements of how I wrote for that genre and sliding them into country writing. I've written with a few hit writers in Nashville and co-write with others in Nashville and around the country. I also solo write. I travel to Nashville a lot building relationships with publishers and writers.
